

NKU's Department of Political Science, Criminal Justice & Organizational Leadership Michael Partin Book Scholarship -- $500!

This book scholarship was established in memory of Michael Partin, who was a Covington police officer and NKU alumnus, by his family and fellow police officers. Officer Partin died while in pursuit of a suspect in 1998. For more information about him, please see the following memorial web site: <http://www.odmp.org/officer/15028-officer-michael-anthony-partin>

To be eligible for the $500 scholarship, an applicant must meet the following criteria:

1. Be a fully admitted student in any of the majors within the Department of Political Science and Criminal Justice – political science, criminal justice, public administration, international studies or organizational leadership;
2. Be of senior standing by the end of the Spring semester;
3. Have completed a minimum of twelve hours within the Department of Political Science and Criminal Justice;
4. Have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.00;
5. Be pursuing a career within the law enforcement; and
6. Have a faculty member from the Department of Political Science and Criminal Justice endorse your application.

An applicant must submit a 250-word typed essay describing his/her career goals and reasons why he/she is interested in a law enforcement career. The essay should be attached to the application form.

The application deadline is Friday, March 27 at 5 p.m. There are two ways to submit an application:

- Hard copy: Complete a hard copy of the application, have a faculty member write an endorsement and sign it, and then turn in the completed application to Dr. Melissa Moon in 442 Founders Hall.
- Electronic application: Type your information onto the application form, save it and send it as an attachment to the faculty member who has agreed to endorse you, and ask him/her to forward the form – with his/her endorsement of you – to Dr. Moon (moonm@nku.edu). The faculty's email message will serve in lieu of a signature.
